

Wyoming High School Student Press Association

JEA INSTITUTE Fellowship Application

This scholarship covers the base cost ($250-$300) for an adviser at a WHSSPA member school to attend one sequence of the Journalism Education Association's Advisers Institute. Graduate credit is available at the recipient's expense.

Sequence I will be in Nashville, TN June 25-30

Sequences II and III will be in Manhattan, KS July 16-21 and 21-26.

For additional information, or if you have questions, contact the institute director, Linda Putney, at 785-532-7822 (toll free 866-532-5532, or e-mail at lindarp@ksu.edu or jea@ksu.edu. For a description of the Sequences, visit JEA's website at <http://jea.org/workshops/advinst/advinst.html>.

DEADLINE IS JUNE 1! Mail this entry to:

Mike Riley, Executive Director, WHSSPA
520 17th St.,
Cody, WY 82414.

Please number your first, second and third preferences:

_____ Sequence I (Nashville, TN) June 25-30

_____ Sequence II (Manhattan, KS) July 16-21

_____ Sequence III (Manhattan, KS) July 21-26

Print clearly or type:

Name: _____

Home Phone: _____

High School: _____

School Phone: _____

E-Mail: _____

Publication Name: _____

Yearbook Newspaper (Circle One)

Number of Years as Adviser: _____

Recipients will be selected on the basis of need and commitment to improving Wyoming's high school journalism. Write a short essay on the back of this entry form explaining why you would like to attend a JEA Advisers Institute, how you think it might help your publication, and why you need financial assistance.